

WESTCHESTER COMMUNITY FOR HUMANISTIC JUDAISM

Upcoming Events

Location: Community Unitarian Universalist Congregation
468 Rosedale Avenue, White Plains, NY 10605

Sunday, September 11, 2 PM, Fellowship Hall

A presentation of Stav Appel's The Torah in the Tarot

Stav will argue his provocative thesis that the original Tarot de Marseille, from 17th century Paris, was created as a secret tool for Jewish continuity in response to the 250-year long banishment of Jews from France. Hear the theory, see the cards, reach your own conclusions.

Sunday, September 25, 7 PM, Sanctuary

A humanistic Rosh Hashanah service led by Rabbi Frank Tamburello

Accompanied by the WCHJ choir and Prof. Ruth Levy-Schudroff, who will also perform Kol Nidre.

Humanistic Jews see Rosh Hashanah as a time for renewal, reflection, and new beginnings. Our focus is on the affirmation of human power and human dignity. Rosh Hashanah is a time to consider the possibilities for change, improvement, and happiness that we can create for ourselves as human beings.

Wednesday, October 5, 5:30 PM, Sanctuary

A humanistic Yom Kippur service led by Rabbi Frank Tamburello

Accompanied by the WCHJ choir and Prof. Ruth Levy-Schudroff, who will also perform Kol Nidre.

Though it is traditionally a day of fasting and prayer at the synagogue, for Humanistic Jews, Yom Kippur is the culmination of the introspection begun on Rosh Hashanah. The holiday offers the opportunity to ask forgiveness from ourselves and those we have wronged, and to vow to be active, involved, caring people in the coming year. It is also a time for remembrance.

Saturday, October 15, 2:30 PM, Fireside and the lawn behind it

Humanistic Sukkot led by Rabbi Frank Tamburello

Sukkot offers an opportunity in the fall for communities to come together, to experience the out-of-doors, to recognize the interconnectedness of humanity and the earth and to acknowledge responsibility for the environment.
